THIS WEEK

CHRISTIAN AID WEEK this year is 15 to 21 May. We will not be doing house to house collections this year, but there will be opportunities for those who wish to donate to Christian Aid, with envelopes in the Cathedral on 15 May. There will also be a CAKE SALE after the 10.30 service on Sunday 15 May, in the South Transept of the Cathedral, so that you can buy cakes whilst having your coffee!

GIFT SHOP NEWS Celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee with a souvenir mug, tea towel or coaster. Or treat yourself to some delicious chocolate – there are so many flavours such as Raspberry and Gin or Oatmilk Orange and Rhubarb. Or, learn more about the Cathedral with our range of books, CDs and other souvenirs. Every purchase helps support the Cathedral – please come and see us.

FUTURE EVENTS

CATHEDRAL COMMUNITY ANNUAL MEETING, 6.30 for 7.00pm in The Weston Room on Monday 23 May 2022. All are invited to the annual Cathedral Community Meeting: a chance to reflect on the past year at the Cathedral, to hear about future plans and to ask questions of the Chapter. During this meeting the Chapter Steward will present the annual accounts.

NCCL 28 May, 10am to 12.30pm. Christian approaches to other faiths: exclusivism, inclusivism, pluralism, other? Many Christians wonder what to make of their neighbours' faith: are they in error? Are they mistaken about some things but ultimately oriented towards God? Or are they in essence the same, just using a different religious language? In this session the Revd Patrick Morrow will outline this "threefold paradigm", and examine its validity and usefulness. Cost £10; to book your place contact NCCL Admin Team, 01603 218443, NCCL@cathedral.org.uk

BATTLE OF THE ORGANS Friday 3 June 2022, 2.00 – 3.00pm

In the very final concert before the restoration of the Cathedral organ begins, our Cathedral organists David Dunnett, Ashley Grote and George Inscoe will give an unmissable concert using THREE organs simultaneously – the Cathedral organ, an Electronic organ installed for the duration of the restoration project, and the cathedral's chamber organ. In solos, duets and trios they will present a programme of some of the best-loved music in the organ repertoire. No tickets required and admission is free with a retiring collection – please come along for what will be an historic performance!

PLATINUM JUBILEE CONCERT Saturday 4 June 2022, 7.30pm

Norwich Baroque and Norwich Cathedral Chamber Choir, directed by Ashley Grote, present a thrilling programme of Royal music by Handel, in celebration of the Queen's Platinum Jubilee. The concert includes The Arrival of the Queen of Sheba, the four Coronation Anthems (including 'Zadok the Priest') and the Ode for the Birthday of Queen Anne (including the famous solo 'Eternal source of light divine'). Some of the country's finest baroque trumpeters and horn players will gather for a rare complete performance of Handel's Music for the Royal Fireworks. This promises to be a memorable concert to mark this historic celebration. Tickets are available now either online at www.cathedral.org.uk or by calling Ticket Source on 0333 666 3366.

PLATINUM JUBILEE On Sunday 5 June, we will be having a special celebratory service at 3.30pm for The Queen's Platinum Jubilee. All are very welcome. There will be music sung at the Queen's Coronation, and after the 10.30 Eucharist all are invited to bring a picnic and have lunch in the Cloister.
